

ALLIED HEALTHCARE POSITIONS

ARE THESE WORKERS IN DEMAND?

100K

There's an annual demand of 100K+ allied healthcare workers in California through 2026, resulting in a total of ~500K new workers by then.

2026 ↓

The supply of allied health professional has been shrinking over the past six years and is projected to continue shrinking through 2026.²

2.3 million

The allied health sector includes a wide range of clinical, administrative, and support positions, from licensed vocational nurses and medical assistants to medical coders and health information technicians and radiologic technicians and laboratory workers. Their services are absolutely critical to the other health professionals they work with and the patients they serve.
